Kentucky Oaks Card Spot Plays:

Nick:

Race 6 – Box an Exacta of Believe You Can with Class Unlimited – Believe You Can is a very talented gal. She can set a strong pace and keep it going for a very long time. She has speed, stamina and heart and should fire big here off a freshening. Class Unlimited has run well against very good company throughout her career. She has had two races off a freshening albeit it looks more like a grass experiment and today she is back at a more favorable spot. Finished 3rd and 4th.

Race 7 Tokyo Time is turning into a grass monster. Last time out finished in :11 1/5th and prior he came home in :11 4/5ths. Comes in fresh and has worked very well for today's race. Figures to fire big again. Finished 4th

TinMan:

Race 8:

Win: Touch Magic Finished 8th

Exacta: Key Touch Magic top and bottom with Blueeyesintherein, Dancinginthecircle, Calistoga (4th)

ScatCat:

Race 9: Exacta and Trifecta

This looks to be Cyber Secret's race to win, but after that it's a pretty open race with the opportunity for some longshots to round out the exotics. I'll be playing an Exacta and Trifecta in this race, keying Cyber Secret #9 (Finished 2nd DQ'd to 8th)/ with #s 8 (SHOW), 7, 6 (WON), 4 (PLACE), 3, 2 underneath.

Race 9: Pick 3:

Race 9: #9 (Cyber Secret)/ (Finished 2nd DQ'd to 8th)

Race 10: #4, #5, #12 (Noble Tune-WON), War Dancer, Redwood Kitten)/

Race 11: #2 Midnight Lucky 5th

Nick's Derby Day Spot Plays

Race 1 - Glamour Puss might get the perfect race flow as she figures to sit of some pretty quick early splits. Has been working for stamina instead of speed which should kick in down the stretch. Glamour has a good chance to upset an odds on favorite in the opener. WON $7.40

Race 3 - Old Time Hockey has faced much deeper fields than he faces today. He has had a race off his freshening, a very quick one in fact and he should be ready for his top effort in this spot. 4th

Race 7 – Rumor looked good getting to the front last time out in his second start off a freshening. Rumor comes in here off solid works and figures to fire as big today as he did last time out since his last still wasn't his best race. Still has room to improve. 5th

Race 10 – Point of Entry ran a huge race last time out coming in off a freshening. From the ¾'s point to the mile point in this last start he went in :22 seconds flat! Then he finished in :11 2/5ths to the wire. Not many can run a quarter that fast to get into contention and then keep it going to the wire. Should fire big once again. Scratched

Race 10/11 Double - Key Point of Entry in Doubles over Normandy Invasion & Java's War

TinMan's Spot Plays
